

Issues relating Womens' Rights

- Met regularly with Police officials to ensure protection for women's health care clinics
- Supported City measures to protect free speech which does not impinge of access to private homes and healt care facilities
- Supported promotion of women to senior management positions
- Encouraged women to seek non-traditional roles in City and count government.
- Supported promotion of women who perform work above their class, to levels equivalent to male managers.