Education Press Conference Jim Beall October 5, 1992

Thank you. I'm grateful for the confidence that you all have shown in me. I promise to you that I won't disappoint you if I'm elected to represent you in Sacramento.

We need a long-range strategic plan for education in this state. Not a band-aid that will get us from one crisis to the next. A Master Plan for both kindergarten through high school and for higher education.

We're adding 200,000 kids a year to schools throughout this state and there is no blueprint to show us where our schools should go. I'm committed not only to restoring funding to schools, but planning to make sure we get the most possible out of every dime we spend.

Delaine has been the state's leader on this issue. It's hard to imagine a more articulate, passionate advocate for kids and schools.

I'd like to stand by Delaine's side, not in her way -- like my opponent Chuck Quackenbush.

Chuck Quackenbush turned his back on our kids.

He voted with the Governor nearly every chance he got -- cutting the education budget by 1.1 billion dollars.

When I went to Sacramento with a busload of teachers and parents from the Oak Grove School District to lobby for more money for education, Assemblyman Quackenbush wouldn't even meet with us.

In that one action, he showed his contempt for those who do the work of teaching our kids. Give me a chance, and I'll show my commitment to you.

Thank you very much.
